Spiritual care for the Sick and Homebound

The homebound elders of our families are well taken care of by their dear ones. There are arrangements for their food and medicine but as Catholics there is more we can do. When they can't attend Sunday Mass because of age and ailments the church will go to them to take care of their spiritual needs. We are already doing this on a regular basis. Please let me know if some of your dear ones are sick or homebound. Again, please call me (or priest on-call from the hospital) for anointing the seriously sick that they may receive the sacrament while alive and conscious.

Father Paul has started an online blog which he will use to provide updates of the World Youth Day 2013 experience. To access this blog, visit our parish website at www.saintandrewrccchurch.com and under "Our Menu Options" choose "World Youth Day 2013 Blog". From there you can select from several headings to learn what the members of the group have been up to. There is even an option to write messages to the WYD participants from our parish. Those of us with access to the internet are encouraged to take a look and keep in touch with those embarking on this spiritual adventure.

Spiritans Mission Appeal for Formation/ Development 2013 Sunday August 4, 2013

Spiritans, The Congregation of the Holy Ghost, was started by a young seminarian, Claude Francis Poullart des Places, in France over 300 years ago. Francis sponsored the education of some poor seminarians who also dedicated their services to the poor people in France. Today our missions have spread over sixty countries worldwide and nearly three thousand members are involved in various missions.

Spiritans are found in many diverse ministries, we have dedicated ourselves to working with the poor and in those situations where the church has difficulty finding ministers. We cross borders to meet many different people, of different faiths and especially those on the margin of society. Together we discover Christ and His Spirit and witness the gospel way of life.

The Spiritans are now blessed with many vocations from these developing countries to continue the missionary works. This is why we come to you as one family of God for support to continue the mission of Christ's Church in the world.

Catechesis on the rites preceding baptism On the Mysteries by Saint Ambrose, bishop

We gave a daily instruction on right conduct when the readings were taken from the history of the patriarchs or the maxims of Proverbs. These readings were intended to instruct and train you, so that you might grow accustomed to the ways of our forefathers, entering into their paths and walking in their footsteps, in obedience to God's commands.

Now the season reminds us that we must speak of the mysteries, setting forth the meaning of the sacraments. If we had thought fit to teach these things to those not yet initiated through baptism, we should be considered traitors rather than teachers. Then, too, the light of the mysteries is of itself more effective where people do not know what to expect than where some instruction has been given beforehand.

Open then your ears. Enjoy the fragrance of eternal life, breathed on you by means of the sacraments. We explained this to you as we celebrated the mystery of "the opening" when we said: Effetha, that is, be opened. Everyone who was to come for the grace of baptism had to understand what he was to be asked, and must remember what he was to answer. This mystery was celebrated by Christ when he healed the man who was deaf and dumb, in the Gospel which we proclaimed to you.

After this, the holy of holies was opened up for you; you entered into the sacred place of regeneration. Recall what you were asked; remember what you answered. You renounced the devil and his works, the world and its dissipation and sensuality. Your words are recorded, not on a monument to the dead but in the book of the living.

There you saw the levite, you saw the priest, you saw the high priest. Do not consider their outward form but the grace given by their ministries. You spoke in the presence of angels, as it is written: The lips of a priest guard knowledge, and men seek the law from his mouth, for he is the angel of the Lord almighty. There is no room for deception, no room for denial. He is an angel whose message is the kingdom of Christ and eternal life. You must judge him, not by his appearance but by his office. Remember what he handed on to you, weigh up his value, and so acknowledge his standing.

You entered to confront your enemy, for you intended to renounce him to his face. You turned toward the east, for one who renounces the devil turns toward Christ and fixes his gaze directly on him.
