YEAR OF FAITH 2012-2013

From the General Audience of Pope Francis Wednesday, June , 2013

Dear Brothers and Sisters: In our continuing catechesis on the Creed, today we consider the Church as the People of God, called to new life in Christ. We become part of this people through God's gift of faith and spiritual rebirth in the waters of Baptism. Our law is the twin commandment of love for God and neighbour. Our mission is to be a leaven of the hope born of God's love in our world wounded by sin and evil. Amid the darkness that so frequently surrounds us, we are called to be so many points of light, illumining all reality and showing the way to a better future. God's goodness is stronger than any evil! Our destination is the Kingdom of God which Christ inaugurated on earth and which will attain its fullness in the joy of heaven. This is what it means for the Church to be God's People, an essential part of his loving plan for our human family. May the Church always be a place where everyone can encounter God's mercy and feel welcomed, loved, forgiven and encouraged to live the good life of the Gospel.

Prayer for Fathers

St. Joseph, guardian of Jesus and chaste husband of Mary, you passed your life in loving fulfillment of duty. You supported the holy family of Nazareth with the work of your hands. Kindly protect those who trustingly come to you. You know their aspirations, their hardships, their hopes. They look to you because they know you will understand and protect them. You too knew trial, labor and weariness. But amid the worries of material life your soul was full of deep peace and sang out in true joy through intimacy with God's Son entrusted to you and with Mary, his tender Mother. Assure those you protect that they do not labour alone. Teach them to find Jesus near them and to watch over him faithfully as you have done.

By Pope John XXIII

God will provide for us

A young woman brings her fiancé home to meet her parents. After dinner, her mother tells her father to find out about the young man, so the father invites the fiancé to his study for a drink.

"So what are your plans?" the father asks the young man.

"I am a Torah scholar", he replies.

"A Torah scholar... Hmmm", the father says. "Admirable, but what will you do to provide a nice house for my daughter to live in, as she's accustomed to?"

"I will study", the young man replies, "and God will provide for us."

"And how will you buy her a beautiful engagement ring, such as she deserves?" asks the father.

"I will concentrate on my studies", the young man replies, "God will provide for us."

"And children?" asks the father. "How will you support children?"

"Don't worry, sir, God will provide," replies the fiancé.

The conversation proceeds like this, and each time the father questions, the young idealist insists that God will provide.

Later, the mother asks: "How did it go, Honey?"

And the father answers: "He has no job and no plans, but the good news is he thinks I'm God."

Catholic Marriage Tribunal

Christ the Lord calls upon the Church to be a community of healing and reconciliation. The legal procedures of the Church's Tribunals are based on the principle that our Faith Community cares about those who suffer from broken marriages. Anyone wishing to apply for a Declaration of Nullity or wishing to inquire about their own marriage situation is encouraged to contact the Marriage Tribunal.
