 O, Sweet Jesus, may every good feeling that is fitted for Your praise, love You, delight in You, adore You! God of my heart, and my Portion, Christ Jesus, may my heart faint away in spirit and break forth into a perfect fire; may it burn incessantly on the altar of my heart; may it glow in my innermost being; may it blaze in hidden recesses of my soul; and in the days of my consummation may I be found consummated with You! Amen. By St. Augustine

PRAYER AGAINST EUTHANASIA

Heavenly Father, we call on you in this time of dire need.
 We fear that our country will embrace legalized euthanasia, creating a culture of death, whereas You are the light and creator of life.
 We offer up to You the hearts of those who support euthanasia, many out of fear, because they do not know You and Your great mercy
 We know you have the power to change the hearts of those who think euthanasia is the only answer to illness and suffering; and we ask you to do so.
 We also ask you to inspire those who are opposed to euthanasia but have yet to make a stand, to rise up:
 Nothing is impossible with You. We pray for your help.
 Amen
 St. Catharines Right to Life.

Saint Andrew the Apostle, pray for us

Dear Brothers and Sisters: Continuing our catechesis on the family, today we reflect on the complementarity between man and woman. Scripture tells us that "God created man in his own image... male and female he created them" (Gen 1:27). Man and woman bear the image and likeness of God not only as individuals, but also together. In God's plan, sexual differentiation is not ordered to subordination, but to communion and procreation. This reciprocity brings harmony and enrichment to the human family. But it also presents a constant challenge; that men and women learn how to speak to one another, and to respect and love each other. Nowadays, we sense the responsibility to do more in favour of women, recognizing the weight and authority of their voices in society and the Church. We must also ask ourselves to what extent society's loss of faith in God is related to the crisis of that covenant. The challenge faced by the Church, and by all believers and families, is to rediscover the beauty of God's plan, the imprint of his image in the covenant between man and woman.

First Holy Communion

Welcome to all of the families who are joining us this morning to witness the Celebration of the Sacrament of First Communion that God's children (12) will receive today. We offer our prayers of thanksgiving that these children have been brought here to receive Christ Jesus. May the families, friends, parishioners, teachers and peers of these children always help them continue to join in the banquet at the table of the Lord.
