

Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, July 1, 2018

She had heard about Jesus, and came up behind him in the crowd and touched his cloak, for she said, "If I but touch his clothes, I will be made well." Immediately her hemorrhage stopped; and she felt in her body that she was healed of her disease. (Mark 5:21-43)

Saint Andrew the Apostle, pray for us

Pope Francis
 General Audience
 June 27, 2018

Dear brothers and sisters:
 In our continuing catechesis on the commandments, we now consider the text of the Decalogue, the ten commandments given to Moses on Mount Sinai. The text begins with the words: "I am the Lord your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery" (Ex 20:2). God first identifies himself as our God, the God whose love sets us free from all that enslaves us. These words show that God's "commands" are really an invitation to respond with gratitude to his saving love, a love disclosed fully in the coming of Jesus his Son. Gratitude to God for his many gifts, and willingness to accept his offer of love, are at the heart of the Christian moral life; they inspire us to heed God's words and obey his commands. If our obedience to God's law is servile, mere legalism, then, like the ancient Israelites, we should cry out in prayer to be released from that slavery and to enjoy the freedom of God's beloved children in Christ. God wants to break every chain that binds us, so that, in loving obedience to his will, we can enjoy true freedom and life in abundance.

Please remember St. Andrew's Parish in your will and when you think about memorial donations! Thank you.

Canada Day & Independence Day Prayer

We lift up our hearts, O God, on this day of celebration in gratitude for the gift of being Canadians and Americans.

We rejoice with all those who share in the great dream of freedom and dignity for all.

With flags and feasting, with family and friends we salute those who have sacrificed that we might have the opportunity to bring to fulfillment our many God-given gifts.

As we deny all prejudice a place in our hearts, may we also clearly declare our intention to work for the time when all people, regardless of race, religion, or sex, will be granted equal dignity and worth.

Come, O gracious God, who led your children Israel from slavery, keep us free from all that might hold us in bondage.

Bless our countries and join our simple celebration that we may praise you, our Source of freedom, the One in whom we place our trust.

Amen

A Blessed and Happy Canada Day

July 1 is celebrated as Canada's birthday. Canadians should seek to be witnesses to Christ in Canada and the world, and to continue working to influence those in government to act from Christian principles and attitudes.

Christians, realizing they do not have a lasting home here, should pray and work for justice and peace in Canada and throughout the world, so that all God's people may share in the goods of this earth. God's kingdom will come only when all people are ready to let Christ's teaching guide and rule their lives and actions. Wishing All of you A Blessed Canada Day
