

Tenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, June 10, 2018

And the scribes who came down from Jerusalem said, "He has Beelzebul, and by the ruler of the demons he casts out demons." And he called them to him, and spoke to them in parables, "How can Satan cast out Satan? If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. (Mark 3:20-35)

Dear brothers and sisters:
 In our continuing catechesis on Confirmation, we now consider some of its effects. The gift of the Holy Spirit, received in the sacrament, enables us in turn to become a gift for others within the communion of the Church. As living members of Christ's mystical body, we are called to share in the life and mission of the Church both universally and within our local Christian communities. As an eloquent sign of this ecclesial dimension, the sacrament of Confirmation is ordinarily conferred by the diocesan Bishop, who, as a successor of the Apostles, is charged with fostering the Church's unity through the rich diversity of the Spirit's gifts. The sign of peace exchanged by the Bishop and the newly confirmed is a reminder that each must work for the upbuilding of the community in faith, love and Christian service. May we who have received this sacrament open our hearts each day to the liberating breath of the Holy Spirit and fan into flame the gifts we have received for the good of one another, the whole Church and the world in which we live.

Mary kept all these things in her heart

A sermon of St Laurence Justinian

As Mary pondered all she had learned from reading and from what she had heard and seen, how greatly did she increase in faith, advance in merit and become enlightened with wisdom! More and more she was consumed with burning love. Drawing life and inspiration from the heavenly mysteries which were being unlocked for her, she was filled with joy; she became alive with the Spirit, she was guided towards God and was kept humble in herself. The effects of divine grace are such indeed that they raise one from the depths to the heights, and transform one in an ever greater degree of glory. Entirely blessed was the mind of the Virgin which, through the direction of the Spirit dwelling in her, ever obeyed the command of the Word of God in all things. She was governed not by her own judgement or opinions, but she outwardly performed through her body whatever wisdom had indicated inwardly to her faith. It was surely fitting that divine Wisdom, which had built the house of the Church for its abode, should use most holy Mary as its instrument, where the observance of the law, purification of the heart, the doctrine of humility and spiritual offering were concerned.

Imitate her, O faithful soul. Enter into the temple of your heart that you may be purified in spirit and cleansed of the pollution of your sins. In everything we do God considers our disposition rather than our actions. And so, whether we retire mentally to God in earnest contemplation and remain at rest or whether we are intent on being of service to those around us with good works and worthy undertakings, let our object be that we are motivated only by love of Christ. So the really acceptable offering of purification of the spirit is that which is rendered not in a man-made temple but in the temple of the heart, where Christ the Lord is pleased to enter.

Saturday June 9, 2018 is the feast of the Immaculate or Sacred Heart of Mary

In Memoriam

Please remember in your prayers the repose of the soul of Reverend Monsignor Raymond Montague who died on Saturday, June 2, 2018. Monsignor Montague was born and raised in St. Catharines. He attended St. Ann Catholic Elementary School, Port Dalhousie, and Notre Dame College School, Welland. Monsignor Montague was ordained a priest for the Diocese of St. Catharines on May 28, 1960 by the late Bishop Thomas McCarthy. He was 84 years old.

Monsignor Montague will be remembered by many people for his eloquent radio voice delivering spiritual reflections four times a day for many years. His fellow priests, family, friends and all whom he served were always touched by his exemplary kindness and humility.

As we pray for the eternal repose of the soul of Monsignor Raymond Montague, we extend our sincere sympathy to his family and friends and to all who mourn his loss. "Requiescat inpace"

"The souls of the just are in the hands of God, no torment shall ever touch them." (Wisdom 3:1)
