

Thirty second Sunday in Ordinary Time, November 11, 2018

He sat down opposite the treasury, and watched the crowd putting money into the treasury. Many rich people put in large sums. A poor widow came and put in two small copper coins, which are worth a penny. Then he called his disciples and said to them, "Truly I tell you, this poor widow has put in more than all those who are contributing to the treasury. For all of them have contributed out of their abundance; but she out of her poverty has put in everything she had, all she had to live on."

Remembrance Day

We pause today in silence to remember those who died in war and to pray for the victims of aggression and inhumanity throughout the world. This is a day to pray for peace, to consider what we are doing as individuals, as a community and as a nation to bring God's peace into the world. This is a day when a believing community should rededicate itself by prayer and action to the ideals Jesus gives us in the Beatitudes.

Dear brothers and sisters:
 In our continuing catechesis on the Ten Commandments, we now turn to the seventh commandment: "You shall not steal". This commandment deals specifically with theft and with respect for the property of others. Yet it also invites us to consider, in the light of faith and the Church's social doctrine, that the goods of creation are destined for the entire human race. The universal destination of goods does not detract from the right to private property, but sets that right in proper perspective. The Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches that "the ownership of any property makes its holder a steward of Providence, with the task of making it fruitful and communicating its benefits to others" (No. 2404). Our world has sufficient resources to meet the primary needs of all its inhabitants, yet so many members of our human family continue to suffer extreme want and even starvation for lack of sound economic decisions inspired by solidarity and justice. The example of Christ, who, though rich became poor for our sake (cf. 2 Cor 8:9), reveals the true meaning and purpose of all wealth: it stands at the service of love, freedom and human dignity.

 Bishop of Saint Catharines
 Excerpts from: Pastoral Letter on 60th Anniversary of our diocese

As we commemorate our sixtieth anniversary, it is my hope and prayer that, as a diocesan family, we will be able to "remember the past with gratitude, to live the present with enthusiasm and to look forward to the future with confidence." After fifty-nine years our diocese has changed in many ways and this reality is most evident in the life of our forty- four parishes. Although the context may have changed, the mission remains the same. That mission was given to the Church by Christ prior to his Ascension to the Father. He stated, "Go therefore and make disciples of all nations" (Mt 16:19). Entrusting this year to the intercession of Our Blessed Mother Mary and St. Catherine of Alexandria, we pray for God's abundant graces and blessings as we celebrate the sixtieth anniversary of our diocese.

 100 years Remembrance Day

November 11, 2018 marks a very important day in the history of Canada and the history of the world – the 100th anniversary of the signing of the Armistice to end the First World War. The war was devastating in its consequences for Canadian families and did not distinguish between the battlefield and home, young and old, Catholic and non-Catholic. To mark this important occasion and to encourage all Canadians to reflect on the loss of life and sacrifices made by soldiers and their families, the Royal Canadian Legion is inviting churches/houses of worship across the country to participate in the ringing of church bells at sunset (@ approx. 5:00pm) on November 11, 2018.

Let us pray for all who suffer as a result of conflict, and ask that God may give us peace:
 For the service men and women who have died in the violence of war, each one remembered by and known to God; May God give peace, God give peace For those who love them in death as in life, offering the distress of our grief and the sadness of our loss; May God give peace. O God of truth and justice, we hold before You those whose memory we cherish, and those whose names we will never know. Help us to lift our eyes above the torment of this broken world, and grant us the grace to pray for those who wish us harm. As we honour the past, may we put our faith in in You for our future; for You are the source of life and hope, now and for ever. Amen

St. Vincent de Paul

Pope Francis has declared the World Day of the Poor on Sunday November 18, 2018
 The St. Vincent de Paul St. Andrew's Conference asks you to reach out to the needy. Your donation of a loonie or toonie at Mass on 17/18 - Saturday or Sunday will help us provide food for those less fortunate.

Please remember St. Andrew's Parish in your will and when you think about memorial donations!

St. Vincent de Paul - needs winter coats

The St. Vincent de Paul Store is asking for donations of gently used men's winter coats. Please help. Thank you.
