Spiritual care for the Sick and Homebound

The homebound elders of our families are well taken care of by their dear ones. Of course, there are arrangements for their food and medicine. But as Catholics there is more we can do. When they can’t attend Sunday Mass because of age and ailments the church will go to them to take care of their spiritual needs. We are already doing this on a regular basis. Please let me know if some of your dear ones are sick or homebound. Again, please call me (or priest on-call from the hospital) for anointing the seriously sick that they may receive the sacraments while alive and conscious. Hospital will call a priest only upon a request from you or a dear one. There is a catholic priest on-call arrangement 24/7, for every hospital.

POPE FRANCIS
GENERAL AUDIENCE
St. Peter's Square
29 October 2014

Dear Brothers and Sisters:

In our catechesis on the Church, we have seen that the Church is a spiritual reality, the mystical Body of Christ. Yet we know that the Church is also a visible reality, expressed in our parishes and communities, and in her institutional structures. This visible reality is itself mysterious, for it embraces the countless and often hidden works of charity carried out by believers throughout the world. To understand the relationship between the visible and the spiritual dimensions of Christ’s Body, the Church, we need to look to Jesus himself, both God and man. Just as Christ’s humanity serves his divine mission of salvation, so too, with the eyes of faith, we can understand how the Church’s visible dimension is at the service of her deepest spiritual reality. Through her sacraments and her witness to Christ in our world, the Church seeks to proclaim and bring God’s merciful love to all, particularly the poor and those in need. Let us ask the Lord to enable us to grow in holiness and to be an ever more visible sign of his love for all mankind.

Remembering Our Loved Ones

On this weekend at all Masses we will be commemorating the recently deceased members from our families. One member from each family who lost a loved one since All Soul’s Day 2013 is requested to come forward to light a memorial candle.
