

Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time, October 21, 2018

So Jesus called them and said to them, "You know that among the Gentiles those whom they recognize as their rulers lord it over them, and their great ones are tyrants over them. But it is not so among you; but whoever wishes to become great among you must be your servant, and whoever wishes to be first among you must be slave of all. For the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life a ransom for many." Mark (10: 35-45)

The sacraments of Christian initiation
http://www.vatican.va/archive/compendium_ccc/documents/archive_2005_compendium-ccc_en.html#The sacraments of Christian initiation

Dear brothers and sisters:
 In our continuing catechesis on the Ten Commandments, we turn now to the fifth: "You shall not kill", which reveals how precious human life is in God's eyes; we are made in his image out of his infinite love for us. But we learn that there are other ways of "killing" a person: anger, insult, scorn and indifference towards others can kill, perhaps not their physical bodies, but rather the unseen spirit within them. Although the opposite of killing might seem to be not killing, that is only a first step towards loving. We need to do the opposite of what Cain did to Abel: we are each other's keepers, protectors and guardians. For this we need Christ's love and mercy. The commandment not to kill is a call to love and to mercy, a call to live according to the life of the Lord Jesus, who gave us life by rising to life; this life is the Father's gift to each of us.

World Mission Sunday - October 21
 Today, on World Mission Sunday, we are invited to celebrate our mission's vocation, to pray for the people who are actively engaged in mission, and to generously contribute to our worldwide mission solidarity fund through this collection. Your gift on this day helps:
 - People in remote villages, towns and cities through the witness and work of missionaries and local priests;
 -Children, the elderly, refugees, the sick, and orphans through the services of religious Sisters and Brothers;
 -To bring the Gospel to the poorest of our human family;
 -Catechists proclaim the message of hope and peace that only Christ can give.

Please offer your prayers for the work of the Church in the missions today and be as generous as you can on World Mission Sunday.

All Souls' Day - Nov.2nd
 All Souls' Day envelopes are in every envelope box. Additional envelopes may be found at the back table. Please write the name of your dearly deceased loved ones who are to be remembered on All Soul's Day Mass, on the envelope. An offering of $2 for each name is much appreciated. Please place the envelopes in the collection basket.
On Nov. 3th and 4th at all Masses we will be commemorating the recently deceased members from our families. One member from each family who lost a loved one since All Soul's Day 2017 will be requested to come forward to light a candle in their memory.

THE SACRAMENT OF CONFIRMATION

269. Who can receive this sacrament?
 1306-1311 1319

Only those already baptized can and should receive this sacrament which can be received only once. To receive Confirmation efficaciously the candidate must be in the state of grace.

270. Who is the minister of Confirmation?
 1312-1314

The original minister of Confirmation is the bishop. In this way the link between the confirmed and the Church in her apostolic dimension is made manifest. When a priest confers this sacrament, as ordinarily happens in the East and in special cases in the West, the link with the bishop and with the Church is expressed by the priest who is the collaborator of the bishop and by the Sacred Chrism, consecrated by the bishop himself.

Winding up of the Host a Family Program
We were able to sponsor and support two Syrian families in the last 2+ years period. I thank each and every volunteer for your whole hearted support. I am also grateful to all who donated money, or supported our fund raising programs to help these families. Our contract with the 2nd family will be over by the end of this month. But individual parishioners are encouraged to continue their support to this family in their needs. I wish all the best to the Kaba family in the future. God bless, Fr.Paul

Annulment Facts and Myths
 Fr. Ben Weber and Margaret Jong, canon lawyers from our diocesan Marriage Tribunal, will discuss true facts and false claims about Catholic marriage annulments. The presentation will be offered once in each deanery, and is open to anyone interested in applying for an annulment or learning about annulments and the ministry of the Marriage Tribunal. For more information, call 905-687-8817 or email tribunal@saintcd.com. All meetings are 7 pm to 8:30 pm.
